

GERMANY

Leutnant Eckhard Zuern, Age: 21

Rostock, Germany

A true bantam, short but full of fight.

School. Hitler Jugend. Reichsarbeitsdienst. Heer. Such is the career of a young man in the Third Reich. Eckhard is a model citizen of the new Germany and he fights hard to ensure that 1918 is not repeated. Eckhard has insecurities surrounding his authority due to his short stature and being the youngest at home. This leads him to be very harsh and almost cruel in nature. Not one to be messed with.

Obergefreiter Harro Lucht, Squad 1

Age: 36. Osterburg, Germany

Harro resembles a corpse. Undernourished, thin and pale.

An Office Clerk since school, and then the army when he was called up. Harro looks out for Nikolaus Eggers like he was his own son, being his neighbour. He made a vow with Nikolaus' father to return his son safely.

Obergefreiter Nikolaus Eggers, Squad 2

Age: 21. Osterburg, Germany

Tall and thin, Nikolaus is a rural farm boy. He left the Hitler Jugend and joined the Army. He is a model citizen of the new Germany. Growing up, he was a neighbour to Harro Lucht, and used to garden for his older neighbour, for pocket money.

Obergefreiter Wolfram Kohlhaas, Sqd 3

Age: 25. Dusseldorf, Germany

A strapping six-footer. An inner-city School with a father in an armaments factory. Wolf left the Hitler Jugend and joined the Army. He is a model citizen of the new Germany. A promising youngster in the Hitler Jugend, but his brash nature and quick temper was the reason he left and hasn't progressed beyond Obergefreiter.

Panzer-Lehr Platoon

Being from big cities, both Wolfram and Eckhard are chasing glory in the name of the fatherland. They look down upon the other two Obergefreiter's in the Platoon, being country folk from Osterburg. This doesn't bother Nikolaus or Harro however as they are not chasing glory for the fatherland, they simply want to survive the war.
