

GERMANY

Leutnant Eckhard Zuern, Age: 21

Rostock, Germany

CO Impression: -2

Platoon Outlook: -3 (-1 Force Morale next battle)

A true bantam, short but full of fight.

School. Hitler Jugend. Reichsarbeitsdienst. Heer. Such is the career of a young man in the Third Reich. Eckhard is a model citizen of the new Germany and he fights hard to ensure that 1918 is not repeated. Eckhard has insecurities surrounding his authority due to his short stature and being the youngest at home. This leads him to be very harsh and almost cruel in nature. Not one to be messed with.

Obergefreiter Alexander Keipp, Sqd 1

Age: 31. Rostock, Germany

An unremarkable person with a talent for music. A cabaret musician, Alex played with all the big stars before being called up. He still hankers for some "degenerate art" and listens on foreign radio broadcasts when he can

Obergefreiter Englehard Renschler, Sqd2

Age: 42. Dresden, Germany

An average sort of man. A former Communist dock worker, Dresden keeps quiet about his background now but leopards don't change their spots. He hopes for better days in the future.

Obergefreiter Wolfram Kohlhaas, Sqd 3

Age: 25. Dusseldorf, Germany

A strapping six-footer. An inner-city School with a father in an armaments factory. Wolf left the Hitler Jugend and joined the Army. He is a model citizen of the new Germany. A promising youngster in the Hitler Jugend, but his brash nature and quick temper was the reason he left and hasn't progressed beyond Obergefreiter.

Panzer-Lehr Platoon

Being from big cities, both Wolfram and Eckhard are chasing glory in the name of the fatherland. After losing the two Obergefreiter's from the farmlands, the newly promoted NCO's have yet to earn the trust of their squads. It is to be seen if they will follow in their officers footsteps.